2. Make clear linkages between colonialism, trauma, and Indigenous social determinants of health

Indigenous Terminology:

- Indigenous & Aboriginal Peoples in the Canadian context are both used to describe the original peoples before the colonial country was formed
- First Nations peoples is a term that eventually replaced the term “Indian” in the 1970’s. First Nations peoples are land-based nations that trace their heritage back to their traditional territory
- Metis Nation is made up of the descendants of Indigenous women and Euro-Settler men. The Métis are a distinct Indigenous nation with their own history, culture, languages and territories with deep historical roots in the three Prairie provinces
- Inuit Peoples live in communities across the Inuvialuit Settlement Region (Northwest Territories), Nunavut, Nunavik (northern Quebec), and Nunatsiavut (northern Labrador). The Inuit peoples call this vast region Nunangat.

Why Cultural Safety?

"While Indigenous children were being mistreated in residential schools by being told they were heathen, savages and pagans and inferior people -- that same message was being delivered in the public schools of this country."

-Justice Murray Sinclair

SOCIALIZATION, PREJUDICE,& DISCRIMINATION

---

misdiagnosed

An owl is perched on a thick, horizontal wooden branch inside a wire mesh cage. The owl has brown and white mottled feathers and is looking towards the right. The cage is made of a dark metal grid. In the background, there are green leaves and branches of trees. Overlaid on the image are several text labels in white with black outlines. On the left side, there is a vertical list of seven terms. On the right side, there are three terms arranged vertically.

Unacknowledged trauma

Institutions

History

Ideology

Invisibility

Burden of representation

Reward for conformity

Internalized racism

Micro aggressions

Isolation

Breaking down institutional oppression:

Mechanism	Example
Unacknowledged trauma	Color blindness, multiculturalism, “regardless of culture”
Institutions	Buildings and sites are named after white heterosexual upper class males
Reward for conformity	Equality vs. Equity for people and communities
Ideology	Pathologizing cultural values (i.e. communication)
Invisibility	No visual representation of the local First Nations communities on which your site is built
Burden of representation	“The Indigenous people won’t engage with us...” or asking Indigenous staff people to speak on behalf of all Indigenous cultures publicly
Internalized racism	Denial of ancestral heritage to gain structural advantage of privilege
Micro-aggressions	“Everyone can succeed if they work hard enough...” (meritocracy)
Isolation	Hiring an Indigenous staff person to take on all Indigenous patients and clients without social, emotional, cultural, and professional supports in place

What is Cultural Safety?

Cultural safety is an outcome based on respectful engagement that recognizes and strives to address power imbalances inherent in the healthcare system. It results in an environment free of racism and discrimination, where people feel safe when receiving health care.
